

Conflicts of Interest Form

This post requires the highest standards of propriety, involving impartiality, integrity and objectivity, in relation to the stewardship of public funds and the oversight and management of all related activities. This means that any private, voluntary, charitable, or political interest which might be material and relevant to the work of the body concerned should be declared. It is important, therefore, that you consider your circumstances when applying for this appointment and identify any potential conflicts of interest, whether real or perceived.

Please declare any actual or potential conflict of interest you may have below. Any conflicts of interest will be explored by the Panel at interview stage.
